Dear Mr. Kesselman:

I took a tape of the 19 Gold coins you listed. The estimate of these is over $5,000 or an average of $250 per lot of course I can well afford to sell this type of material for only 10%.

I realize that you want to make some money on anything I sell for you. I would like to try a lot somewhat like the coins listed say a couple dozen to a few hundred pcs submitted for my next sale. I will try and work with you same as you would if you were here. So that we both can make something.

If agreeable let me know. I will write you the last minute to Air Mail your coins. This way they will be the last items in the sale and you will get quicker results. I will not need to hold your coins or proceeds an unnecessary length of time.

Hope you will let me hear from you.

Sincerely,

SJK

Dear Mr. Kesselman:

Your reply on my card which you were kind enough to return indicated you wanted a catalog. It is enclosed. Your bids are welcome.

Another indication was that you had coins to sell for cash. Please send the coins. You may state your price or I will be glad to make my best offer for them. Will keep your coins intact to hear from you. If you find my offer satisfactory I will air mail my check or I will return your coins.

I beleive the best method would be to give me the exclusive right to list, grade and sell all coins for the best market price that can be developed by mail and floor bids.in my public auction sales.

My commission is only 20%.

In this way you net the best market price that can be developed.

Sincerely,

S. J. Kabealo

Dear Mr. Kessleman:

I believed that scratches would cover initials.

However the customer is always right. If you believe you are hurt more with initials than scratches please return the coin for full refund.

Sorry I put you out.

Sincerely,

S. J. Kabealo
